Tuition fees

From the start of 2019 schoolyear, the engineering and master tuition fees will depend on the students’ origin.

The principle:
- Students from extended EEA (European Economic Area) have to refer to A fees.
- All the others have to refer to B fees, except exemptions.

You have to be in this situation for the last two years to 01/01/2019.

⇒ Please, specify your residence situation when you register on our website on the differential fees page and upload in .pdf the three last notices on tax income, or your three last declarations of tax income for the last three years 2017, 2018, 2019 that refer to incomes of 2016, 2017, 2018.

⇒ If you depend on a French tax residence, please upload the last declaration of tax income of the French tax residence’s person you depend on.

6. You are a holder of refugee status or subsidiary protection status

This situation is also applicable if your parents or your legal guardian benefit from these status.

⇒ Please, specify your status situation when you register on our website on the differential fees page and upload you resident card scan.

⇒ If the status situation concerns your parents, please upload in the same .pdf scan your resident card, a proof of your filiation (extract of civil-status or family record book, with the translation by an officially certified translator if it is not written in French or English languages).

7. You register in Nanotechnologies Master

You do not have anything to do, you will be automatically exempted.
Other situations

1. You come at ECL in an exchange program

Our exchange program with your high education establishment allows you to be exempted from the tuition fees of the training that is concerned by the exchange agreement. However, if you wish to register in an additional Master, you have to pay the rank1 tuition fees if you register as an audit student or DESECL.

2. You are French government scholarship holder

This scholarship (different from the embassies scholarship) allows you to be exempted from the tuition fees, except the specific fees of the international Masters.

⇒ Please, register your scholarship in “annual data-subsidies” section and upload your scholarship certificate.

In any case, please come at the start-school day with the original supporting documents.
